

CURRICULUM VITAE(2006)

Name: Ryosei KOKUBUN(Mr.)

Present position: Director, Institute of East Asian Studies, Keio University
Professor, Faculty of Law and Politics, Keio University

Mailing address: Keio University, 2-15-45 Mita, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan
(Phone) 03-5427-1598<Institute>, 03-5427-1415<Faculty>
(Fax) 03-5427-1640<Institute>, 03-5427-1578<Faculty>

E-Mail address: rkokubun@iris.ocn.ne.jp; kokubun@law.keio.ac.jp

Academic degrees: All from Keio University (BA, MA, Ph.D.)

Research topic: Chinese politics and international relations in East Asia

Foreign language: fluent in Chinese(Mandarin) and English

Working experience: 1981-1985, Assistant Professor, Keio University
1985-1992, Associate Professor, Keio University
1992- Professor, Keio University
1999- Director, Institute of East Asian Studies(former Center for Area Studies), Keio University

Foreign experience: 1982-1983, Visiting scholar, Fairbank Center, Harvard University
1983-1984, Visiting scholar, Center for Chinese Studies,
University of Michigan
1987-1988, Visiting scholar, Fudan University, Shanghai, China
1997, Visiting scholar, Peking University, China
1998, Visiting scholar, Taiwan University, Taiwan

Academic affiliation:

President(2006-2008), The Japan Association of International Relations
President(2005-2007), Japan Association for Asian Studies
Executive Board Member, The Japan Association for Comparative Studies

Other positions:

Member and Secretary, New 21st Century Commission for Japan-China Friendship
Editorial Board, The China Quarterly(London)
Special Columnist, JoongAng Ilbo, Korea

Main Publications: <Japanese>

Politics and Bureaucracy in Contemporary China, Keio University Press, 2004(Suntory Prize for Social Sciences and Humanities, 2004).

Chinese Politics and East Asia(ed.), Keio University Press, 2004.

The People's Republic of China, Chikuma Shobo, 1999.

<English>

Challenges for China-Japan-US Cooperation(ed.), Japan Center for International Exchange(JCIE), 1998.

The Rise of China and a Changing East Asian Order(eds.), Japan Center for International Exchange(JCIE), 2004.