

Major General (Ret) Karlis Neretnieks

Karlis Neretnieks, Major General (Ret). Born 1949. Senior Research Fellow at Silk Road Studies Program, Uppsala University. Presently conducting research at the Swedish Defence Research Agency and the Swedish National Defence College on Security in the Baltic Sea Area and Security Sector Reform.

Earlier Rector of the Swedish National Defence College. He has also served as special advisor at the Swedish Ministry of Defence on Baltic State Security, Chief of Operations in the Central Joint Command, Commander of Swedish Armed Forces International Centre, Commander of 18. Mechanized Brigade and Head of Department in the Army Staff.

Mr. Neretnieks has graduated from both the Swedish and Norwegian General Staff courses and also pursued academic studies at Institut Universitaire De Hautes Études Internationales in Geneva. He is a Fellow at the Royal Swedish Academy of War Sciences.

Mr. Neretnieks is also a board member of the Swedish Atlantic Council and member of the Advisory Board at the Geneva Institute for the Democratisation of Armed Forces (DCAF). He is Commander of the Latvian Order of Three Stars.